

I understand that there is a chance that our local KLOVE station could be replaced with an LCFM station. I hope you will not let that happen. We have so few choices for family friendly radio. Most of the stations out there are not appropriate for kids and KLOVE is so please don't mess with it!